Six or eight men were secured to do the work of excavation, and as the mound is thirty feet wide and inearly as long, and many feet deep, it will take several days' work to reach all parts of it; One Saturday a number of skulls and hones were uncovered, and it is estimated that fully itso Indians were burted here, long before the advent of the white man. A pipe, made of a substance that looks like soapstone, and a well-defined tomahawk, were also found. There are a number of Indian mounds in this county, and most of them are familiar to Dr. Me-Neill, who has been investigating the mounds for several years. In one grave, Dr. McNeill found where more than 100 Indians had been furied, evidently the victims of a sangulnary battle. One of the skulls; still had a tomahawk sticking in it, while there were arrow heads in a, number of the skeletons, showing that they had

An unusual event occurred in this county to-day, when the queen of a gypsy camp died at Ottobine. Walving the usual custom of a gypsy funeral, Rev. J. W. Wine, a Dunkard minister, was called in to perform the burial service. Immediately afterward, the members of the camp proceeded to burn all of the late queen's helongings, incinerating a very costly wagon, her tent, all her clothes, and then later chloroformed her horse, which was a fine animal. The queen's malden chloroformed her horse, which was a fine animal. The queen's maider

But Lost All Hope of Cure - Grew Worse and Worse in Spite of Many Doctors and Three Years of Hospital Treatment - Inflammation Made Her Almost Crazy with Pain.

CURED BY TWO SETS OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I began to have an itching over my whole hody about seven years ago and this settled in my limb, from the knee to the toes. I went to see a great many physicians, a matter which cost me a fortune, and after I noticed that I did not get any relief that way. I went for three years to the hospital. But they were unable to help me there. I used all the medicines that I could see but became worse and worse. I had an inflammation which made me almost crazy with pain. When I showed my foot to my friends they would get really frightened. I did my know what to de, I was so sick and had become so nervous that I positively lost all hope.

"I had seen the advertisement of the Cuticura Remedies a great many times but could not make up my mind to buy them, for I had already used so many medicines. Finally I did decide to use the Cuticura Remedies and I tell you that I was never so pleased as when I noticed that, after having used two sets of Cuticura Song. Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills, the entire inflammation had gone. I was completely cured. I should be only too glad if people with a similar disease would come to me and find out the truth. I would only recommend them to use Cuticura. Mrs Bertha Sachs, 1621 Second Ave., New York, N. Y., Aug. 20, 1909."

"Mrs. Bertha Sachs is my sister-in-law and I know well how she suffered and was cured by the Cuticura Remedies after many other treatments failed. Morris Sachs, 321 E. 89th St., New York, N. Y., Secretary of Deutsch-Ostrowoer Unt.-Verein, Kempner Hebrew Benevo-lent Society, etc."

A single set of Cuticura Remedies, costing but one dollar, consisting of Soap to cleanse, Ointment to heal and Pills to purify, has frequently cured chronic cases of torturing, disfiguring humors of infants, children and adults when the best methods known to the profession had failed. Guaranteed absolutely pure.

Not a Cent Spent in Primary, [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., May 27.—It was learned to-day, after the recent municipal primary, at which candidates were nominated for the two branches of the City Council, that not one of the twenty-seven candidates spent a penny in their efforts to be elected. This is a remarkable condition, and it is probable that no other city in the State has ever had it to prevail.

MISSING WITNESS

Dairyman Shurm Questioned Authority of Sergeant-at-Arms Ruskell.

J. I. Shurm, a dairyman, was fined $5 in the Police Court yesterday morning for fallure to appear as a witness when summoned in the Wise-Pollock investigation, now being conducted by a special committee of the Council.

Mr. Shurm, who conducts a dairy east of Richmond, was one of those who was alleged to have contributed to the $600 fund paid Messrs, Wise and Pollock, and his name was given to Sergeant-at-Arms Ruskell, who summoned him to appear at the first session at which testimony was taken. When the name of the witness was called Mr. Ruskell reported that Mr. Shurm had demanded to be summoned by the Henrico-authorities and had questioned the right of the sergeant-at-arms of the Richmond City Council to compet the attendance of a Henrico chizen in Richmond City Council to compel the at-tendance of a Henrico chizen in Rich.

tendance of a Henrico citizen in Richmond.

City Attorney Pollard at once ruled that the committee was sitting with the powers of a court, especially delegated by the Council, and that it could summon witnesses through its sergeant-at-arms and compel their attendance from any point in the State of Virginia and examine such witnesses on oath. Mr. Shurm noted an appeal to the Hustings Court. After his trial and while still in the city he was served with another summons to be present at the meeting of the investigating committee on Monday night, and said he would come.
